

Brief Local Notes

Dr. Gray of Berkeley, injured in the St. Rose, was taken to his home Sunday afternoon in an invalid chair.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of L. R. Reid will please communicate with Henry Silvershield. Reid's wife and children are safe.

Mrs. Ed Faught was so much better Sunday that she was able to be removed to the home of relatives at Sebastopol.

Practically the whole of the valuable law library of Sonoma County has been recovered from the Court House wreck. About $20,000 worth of books were saved. The libraries of Judges Seawell and Burnett have also been saved.

All the records from the Hall of Records have been removed safely. The books and records in the office of the County Clerk are unharmed.

The Santa Rosa Business College opened on Monday, many of the students being present.

A temporary City Hall is in course of construction on the Native Sons' lot on Mendocino street.

Geyserville sent, among other things, in its contribution for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers, 7000 boiled eggs.

Dr. Bogle, the chief of the hospital staff, reports the injured in the hospitals to be doing nicely.

The Elks sent the bodies of N L Jones and W H Mallory to Stockton on Sunday.

N. Bacigalupi has saved practically all of his stock of groceries.

The rumor that S. Graham, the livery stable keeper, had been killed Saturday night by the falling of a wall, proved unfounded.

Judges Seawell and Burnett have made an order continuing all the cases in the Superior Court. A similar order has been made in the Superior Court of San Francisco.

Hermann Sons have placed Germania Hall at the disposal of the city for any purpose desired.

W. S. Staley got in from Paso Robles Sunday night. That place was unharmed, but at Salinas there were sixty-two shocks and all the brick buildings were demolished.

Mrs. J. Frank Beason and little daughter were brought up from San Francisco last night. It was impossible to get anything there but corned beef and hardtack for the young mother yesterday.

C A Patterson wants information regarding his mother

Inquiries were made at the Information Bureau on Monday for Ella Hassett

Walter Farley, who was injured in the ruins of the Yakima apartment house, is getting along all right

Supplies were received on Sunday from Callistoga

Mrs Frank Fay, who was formerly Miss Mollie Kelley of Petaluma, was killed by the collapse of a brick building in San Francisco.

Anxious relatives and friends of Santa Rosans are arriving here from all over the Pacific Coast to make inquiries

A number of Chinamen came in on the Sunday night Southern Pacific train and the officers kept them moving out of town

The military guard mount will be at 4:30 o'clock each afternoon

Dr G S Conners of St Helena came over from that place Monday to see what help was needed

EDITORIAL

Sonoma county will have to build a new courthouse, and the county will have to be bonded for the purpose. While we are about it, we might as well build it right. A modern, up-to-date structure is the only thing that will fill the bill.

Property in Santa Rosa will soon be at a premium, and worth more than ever before, because Santa Rosa is going to be a better and more prosperous town than it has ever been.

One of the first things the City Council should attend to is the establishment of the new street lines. All the business streets should and must be widened, and now is the time to do it.

Two Dead at Tomales

San Rafael April 23—The town of Tomales is a pile of ruins. All of the large stores are flat. The Catholic church, a new stone structure is also ruined. Many ranch houses and barns are down. Two children, Anita and Peter Couzza were killed in a falling house about a mile from town. Rev. Father Tooney heroically rescued both bodies.

Ordered New Plant

The Press Democrat has ordered a complete new plant, and part of it is already on the way. A large order for job stock has also been wired in, and is now being rushed this way from Los Angeles.

Assistance from Napa

Messrs. Morse and Truelittle, a committee from the Napa Relief Committee, brought over a carload of supplies Saturday night. Needless to say the assistance was greatly appreciated.

Feeble Minded Home

No one was killed at the Feeble Minded Home at Eldridge. Many were injured, but none seriously, and all are being cared for in the buildings. About $60,000 in damage was done the buildings. Secretary Cromwell says a meeting will be called as soon as possible. There is enough food on hand to last a week yet.

Supplying Outsiders

Although the Press Democrat's entire plant was destroyed, a carload and a half of newspaper stored in Sherman's warehouse escaped destruction. The Press Democrat has already supplied the newspapers of several surrounding towns with paper.

Another Body is Found

The remains of a man supposed to be Contractor Richards of San Rafael were discovered in the ruins of the Occidental Hotel, and were taken to the morgue in a small box today.

All kinds of Job Printing done with neatness and dispatch at this office.

Working the Prisoners

The prisoners in the county jail were put to work on Monday afternoon, assisting in clearing away the debris on the Courthouse building.

Shoes and Clothes Wanted

An appeal is made for underclothing, men's shoes and children's clothes to be sent to the People's Church, corner of Third and D streets. The clothing relief gave out a large number of things yesterday. Anybody who can give clothes or who is in need of such help, will kindly let Mrs. Warren Edward Tryon know at the People's Church.

Boy is Missing

A lad named Slocum, from Kelseyville, Lake county, was reported missing Monday morning. Any information about him send to Snow, 317 S. Davis street.

Wine Depot Saved

Andre Sbarboro reports that the big wine depot of the Italian Swiss Colony was saved after two days of desperate fighting. The residences of himself and son were also saved, but those of his two married daughters on Van Ness Avenue had to be destroyed by dynamite in an effort to stay the flames.

Are Getting Assistance

A locomotive and several flat cars reached here at 10 o'clock today over the California Northwestern to assist in removing the debris. It will remain several days in the work. Two gangs of the company's carpenters and four crews of section men have been working for days assisting in wrecking the buildings.